NOTES

We are pleased to offer to a graduating student of Diploma in Accountancy for our July 2011 Kaplan-ACCA Scholarship to pursue the ACCA professional qualification at Kaplan Financial.

The terms and conditions of the scholarship are provided below.

A. CRITERIA

- The scholarship award is based on scholastic merit, which include academic results, participation in campus activities, projects, overseas representation, etc
OR
- To assist a student who wishes to pursue further studies in Accountancy but faces financial hardship.
- The scholarship is opened to Singapore Citizens and Singapore Permanent Residents only. Foreign students are not eligible to apply for the scholarship.

B. CONDITIONS

- Applicants must be new Diploma in Accountancy graduates in year 2011.
- Studies leading to the ACCA professional qualification are fully conducted with Kaplan Learning Institute. There will be a total of 11 subjects and tuition for each subject will consist of 18 - 20 lectures.
- The scholarship covers basic tuition and revision course fees for the 11 subjects. Each tuition course is about 18 - 20 sessions and revision course is 6 sessions per subject.
- The scholarship does not cover ACCA initial membership registration fees, annual subscriptions, exemption and examination fees. These are solely the responsibility of the scholarship recipient.
- Upon award of the scholarship, recipients must enrol in the ACCA course within one year, failing which the scholarship will be considered as lapsed.
- After the release of results for each examination, recipients must submit a copy of their detailed results transcript to Kaplan without fail.
- Scholarship recipients have up to a maximum of 3 years to complete their studies and obtain the ACCA qualification, beyond which the scholarship will be terminated.
- Kaplan will review the results of the recipients on a yearly basis. Should the recipients not perform up to standard during their course of studies, Kaplan reserves the right to terminate the scholarship.
- During the course of their studies, scholarship recipients must help out at Kaplan events (such as Preview Talks, Career Fair etc), whenever the need arises.
