

Dr. Jüergen Rudolph

Head of Research

Dr. Jüergen Rudolph has more than 30 years of higher education teaching experience and substantial training and facilitation experience. Dr. Jüergen's research focus is on Higher Education, and his current teaching focus areas (at undergraduate and postgraduate levels) are International Business, Entrepreneurship and Innovation, and Business Research Methods. In addition to four postgraduate qualifications, he holds a Specialist Diploma in Applied Learning and Teaching from Republic Polytechnic, Singapore, and is ACTA-certified (Advanced Certificate in Training and Assessment).

Dr. Jürgen received the Spirit of Enterprise award in 2005, awarded to 40 outstanding entrepreneurs by then-President of Singapore, Mr. S.R. Nathan. He has started and successfully managed several businesses and has been on the Board of Directors of several entities.

Educational Qualifications

- Master of Education, University of Adelaide (2014)
- Master of Business Administration (MBA), University of Louisville (2002)
- PhD, Friedrich-Alexander University of Erlangen-Nuremberg (1995)
- Master of Arts, Friedrich-Alexander University of Erlangen-Nuremberg (1991)

Professional Qualifications & Experience

- Editor-in-Chief, Journal of Applied Learning & Teaching, Kaplan Singapore (present)
- Member of Editorial Board, Journal of Education, Innovation & Communication (JEICOM) and Thesis (present)
- Honorary Vice-President, International Research Development and Relations, Communication Institute of Greece (present)
- Fellow, Higher Education Academy UK